IS 400 - Project Management

3 Credit Hours

This course evaluates the competencies and skills for planning and controlling projects, understanding interpersonal issues, and critical success factors. Topics include the project management life cycle, defining project parameters, matrix management challenges, effective project management tools and techniques, and the role of a project manager.