

PS 270 - Social Psychology

3 Credit Hours

This course offers scientific explanations of ways in which other people and the environment can affect the individual and how the individual can affect others and the environment. Some of the topics covered are; attitudes, attraction, conformity, stereotypes and competition.

Prerequisites

PS 101 GO 101