

SCM 630 - Supply Chain Management

3 Credit Hours

This course provides knowledge about the theories, concepts, and problems associated with the business supply chain. Students are exposed to key concepts including sustainability, lean operations, insourcing and outsourcing, global value chains, supplier management, ethics, and cost management.