

BSN 503 - Romans

3 Credit Hours

A study of the content, argument, and interpretation of Paul's epistle to the Romans. Special attention will be given to carefully following Paul's flow of thought as well as key doctrinal themes such as man's state before God, justification, Israelology, and the consecrated life of the believer.