

COU 520 - Orientation to the Counseling Profession

3 Credit Hours

An introduction to the counseling profession, including its history, roles and functions, opportunities for advocacy, credentialing, and labor market information to assist with building professional identity.