

COM PEX - Comprehensive Exam

0 Credit Hours

This course assesses students' capacity to critically appraise relevant theories based on academic reasoning and scientific evidence. The goal of the comprehensive exam is for students to demonstrate skills and knowledge critical for independent and creative research and to demonstrate their mastery relevant theories and empirical material in the leadership field and/or any related subfields.