

CS 300 - Software Engineering

3 Credit Hours

This course studies the software development process. Topics include phases of a software project; life-cycle models; metrics; tools; and ethical and professional issues. Participation on team projects is integral. Software is developed using engineering methodologies and techniques.

Prerequisites

EN 215 CS 210 CS 110