CS 410 - Operating Systems

3 Credit Hours
This course introduces the concepts of operating system design and operation and presents basic operating system features. Topics include history of operating systems, virtual memory, processing, device management, file management, networking, security, and ethics. Operating Systems evaluated include Unix, Windows, OS X, and mobile OS.

Prerequisites

CS 340