

ED 204 - Teacher: Leader, Scholar, Citizen

3 Credit Hours

This course prepares pre-service teachers for their roles as leaders, scholars, and model citizens in the classroom and school community. Pre-service teachers will gain leadership and collaboration skills, focusing on the importance of bringing together various stakeholders to solve problems. In addition, pre-service teachers will gain basic research skills and learn to study their own practice, in order to grow as professionals and become master teachers.