

JUS 705 - Criminal Justice Administration

3 Credit Hours

This course provides knowledge about the organizational structure and functions of management that are essential to the operation of criminal justice agencies. Students will review organizational theories and examine the application of these theories within different agencies, while acquiring a knowledge of influential factors in the development of newer practices.