

MG 335 - Lean Management and Manufacturing

3 Credit Hours

This Lean Management course offers a practical introduction to lean management principles and techniques. This course is tailored to help students implement lean manufacturing in business environments to improve productivity, business resilience, and to reduce waste.