CSC 550 - Networking

3 Credit Hours
A course designed to provide a solid foundation in networking concepts, protocols, and technologies, enabling students to build, manage, and troubleshoot networks with confidence. From local area networks to the vast expanse of the internet, this course takes the student on a journey through the layers of networking architecture, equipping them with the knowledge and skills needed to navigate the dynamic landscape of modern networking.