

POL 710 - The American Constitution

3 Credit Hours

This course will provide advanced knowledge about the US constitution, its drafting history, amendments, and interpretation by the courts against the backdrop of political movements and policy developments.