

MGT 605 - Introduction to Sustainability

3 Credit Hours

This course will provide an overview of the key debates surrounding sustainability. It will introduce students to the complex relationships between socio-ecological systems and the development processes engineered by man. Students will gain an understanding of the ethical, justice, business, economic, societal, climate, and governance implications of development and their implications for sustainability.