CN 490 - Senior Project I

3 Credit Hours

A course designed to empower senior students with the skills, knowledge, and hands-on experience needed to conceptualize, plan, and initiate a substantial computer engineering project. This course allows students to explore real-world challenges, harness their technical expertise, and collaborate in teams to create meaningful solutions that showcase their mastery of computer engineering principles.