

CSC 575 - Networking Script Programming

3 Credit Hours

This course combines student networking expertise with scripting skills to streamline and simplify complex network management tasks. By mastering scripting languages and applying them to networking scenarios, students learn how to create efficient and automated solutions for configuring, monitoring, and managing networks.