CSC 620 - OOP Analysis and Design

3 Credit Hours

This course provides a deep understanding of the principles, methodologies, and techniques that underpin the creation of effective and well-structured software systems. Students will learn how to conceptualize, model, and implement software solutions that are scalable, maintainable, and aligned with user needs.