

MGT 606 - Environmental Regulation

3 Credit Hours

This course provides a study in the complex landscape of environmental regulations, laws, and policies that govern the interactions between human activities and the natural world. Through a multidisciplinary approach, students analyze the role of legal frameworks in addressing environmental challenges, fostering sustainability, and ensuring responsible stewardship of our planet's resources.