

SL 470 - Final Practicum and Fieldwork

6 Credit Hours

This 14-week course allows students to merge theory with practice in hands-on settings and continue their apprenticeship under the supervision of a qualified mentor. Additionally, students participate in a senior seminar that focuses on further professional development and post-graduation planning.