

ED 311 - Math for the Elementary Educator

3 Credit Hours

This is a course designed to enhance the math skills of elementary education majors. Skills in the areas of algebra, geometry, and other advanced math topics will be covered. Students will take practice math exams in preparation for the math test that is required during their senior year.