

EE 301 - Teaching Bible to Children

3 Credit Hours

A course designed to aid students in teaching Bible to children who are preschool through elementary grade levels. Students will consider developmentally appropriate methods for teaching biblical content as a means of expanding children's knowledge and comprehension of the Bible as well as applying truth to their lives. Students will evaluate biblical curriculum materials, plan, design, and teach lessons based specifically on key passages from the Bible.