

SL 435 - Project Design

3 Credit Hours

This course explains how to design, plan, and implement a community based development project within the deaf community. Students will learn essential skills for designing projects that are relevant, sustainable, and transformative for parties involved.