

SL 445 - Grant Writing

3 Credit Hours

This course will introduce students to basic grant writing and will explore how to execute strategic grant writing and highlight best practices in grant writing. In addition students will learn how to identify funding sources, develop proposals, and write compelling grant applications.