

INN 502 - Global Leadership

3 Credit Hours

This course focuses on innovative leadership and its relationship with the evolving global economy. Content includes information on how innovation influences global thinking, cultural diversity, technological advances, and the significance of building partnerships and shared leadership.