

CJU 685 - Internship II

3 Credit Hours

This graduate internship course extends hands-on experience in criminological and criminal justice settings. Students deepen their practical skills, apply advanced theoretical concepts, and gain further career insights through continued supervised work and reflective assignments. Internships, initiated by the student, require approval by the CJ Director. Internship classes are designed to be completed consecutively.