

CJU 695 - Thesis II

3 Credit Hours

This thesis continuation course focuses on data analysis, presentation, and scholarly writing. Students refine their research findings, enhance analytical skills, and develop effective communication for academic and professional audiences. Ideal for students aiming to contribute to criminological knowledge and pursue academic or professional research careers. Thesis classes are designed to be completed consecutively and are graded on a pass/fail basis.