

ED 215 - Children's Literature

3 Credit Hours

A survey of literature for children in the elementary grades, including the development of standards for evaluation. By providing a wide reading of children's books, traditional and modern, secular and Christian, this course is designed to enable the teacher to develop appreciation of good literature.