

ED 320 - Teaching Elementary Math

3 Credit Hours

A study of the diverse philosophies of teaching mathematics together with their strengths and weaknesses. Students will examine methods and materials, prepare and present resource units, and examine methods of testing, and evaluation.